IIM Ranchi participates in Yuva Sangam Phase IV

PNS : Ranchi

Indian Institute of Management Ranchi is paired with Central University of Punjab, Bhatinda in Yuva Sangam Phase IV. Yuva Sangam is an initiative by the Government of India, under Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) campaign, to strengthen people-to-people connect between youth belonging to different States/UTs of India. To explore the vibrant sociocultural diversity of Punjab, 45-50 youths from Jharkhand will be hosted by CU Punjab and will have the scope to visit different places in the state. Under this exchange programme, IIM Ranchi will host youths from Punjab for a similar visit in Jharkhand. IIM Ranchi, the leading B school in India invites applications from Jharkhand youths in the age group of 18-30 years (UG, PG, Ph.D., NSS, NYKS volunteers and other youths) to participate in the forthcoming Phase of this unique initiative. Registrations through the YUVASANGAM portal will be accepted till 04th February 2024. Prof. Jagan Kumar Sur, Nodal Officer, Yuva Sangam IV, IIM Ranchi stated "We are excited to be part of this prestigious programme that will enhance the multidimensional exposure and strengthen the bond among the youths of Jharkhand and Punjab.
