

Bokaro SP holds security flag march

Bokaro SP Harvinder Singh held a massive flag march in the city earlier this week with siren-fitted vehicles criss-crossing from Nayamod to Airport More, Ram Mandir to City Center as part of the confidence building drive among public.

Bokaro college bags NAAC grading

Guru Gobind Singh Educational Society's Technical Campus (GGSESTC) Bokaro has bagged NAAC B++ accreditation which will enable local students to pursue courses like B.Tech, BBA, BCA, or MBA within the district itself.

DPS Bokaro organises career fair for students

DPS Bokaro held a career fair to provide new hori-

(From L) DPS Bokaro students participate in the career fair; Participants share their experiences at IIM's Soul Talk

Divy Khare & Mukesh Kumar Bhatt

zon for students of the senior secondary classes. Students were provided with up-to-date information about various career opportunities after Class XII.

IIM Ranchi holds Soul Talk for differently-abled

The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) hosted "Soul Talk," bringing seven differently-abled individuals on a common platform to share their inspiring life journeys.

Man nabbed for making reel while disrupting traffic

Ranchi police nabbed one identified as Rinku Bhai alias Shaukiya Gunda for making social media reels on the road by disrupting traffic a few weeks back. Kotwali and Hindpiri police swung into action and nabbed him on Saturday.

Police help recover lost bag of bus passenger

At Khadgarha bus stand, a passenger lost a bag containing Rs 80,000 and crucial documents. He reported it to Khadgarha temporary outpost, where officer Bhim Singh swiftly acted to locate the bag with the money intact.

(Contributed by Divy Khare, Mukesh Kumar Bhatt & Kritika Tiwari)