

145th Birth Anniversary of the Magician of Pen,
“Premchand”

Tributes to Munshi Premchand at IIM-R

IIM Ranchi, through its Rajbhasha Cell, paid tribute to the legendary Hindi literary figure Munshi Premchand on the occasion of his 145th birth anniversary by organizing a special cultural evening. On this occasion, the institute's Cultural Committee -

“Dramebaaz” (The Drama Club) staged a powerful theatrical adaptation of Premchand's celebrated story “Mantra.” The event was graced by Dr. Kamal Kumar Bose, former Head of the Hindi Department at St. Xavier's College, Ranchi, and a senior theatre artist, as the Chief Guest. He appreciated the Hindi environment fostered at the institute and encouraged students to embrace the language with warmth and sincerity. The play “Mantra,” performed by the students, depicted the inner moral conflict of a renowned doctor and his wife. The event was attended by Prof. Amit Sachan, Dean of Executive Education & Consulting, along with other faculty members.
