

Online Walk-in interview of Field Coordinator for a research study on “Aakanksha District as Fulcrum of Growth Plan – District Gaya (Bihar)”

About the Project

The project on Akanksha District as Fulcrum of Growth Plan – District Gaya (Bihar) is a project awarded by Niti Aayog for creating Sustainable and Inclusive Growth Strategies for the district Gaya in Bihar. The project will touch upon key developmental issues such as socio-economic distress, infrastructure deficits, skill gaps, health care facilities, infrastructure development for tourism, urban planning, and above all, an integrated approach for district development.

Name of Position: Field Coordinator

Location: Gaya, Bihar

Number of Positions: 01

Nature of Job: Contractual

Duration of the Job: 1 month

Eligibility: Post Graduate Degree

Desirable skill sets: Excellent communication and interpersonal skills to handle field planning and data collection exercises. Liasoning with local bodies and government officials.

Age: Preferably below 40 Years

Job Description:

- Managing the team of enumerators.
- Coordination between the enumerators and the project manager.
- Ensure accurate and timely data collection and entry.
- Build and maintain relationships with community members and stakeholders.
- Adapt research protocols to specific community contexts as needed.

Remuneration: The remuneration will be Rs. 30,000/- month.

Eligible interested candidate may appear for online walk-in interview though

Google Meet Link: <https://meet.google.com/web-mtzf-nde> on 05.03.2026 between 11:00 AM to 12:00 Noon.

Project Co-Investigator: Prof. Rajeev Verma

Assistant Professor

Indian Institute of Management Ranchi

Email ID: rajeev.verma@iimranchi.ac.in ; hr@iimranchi.ac.in

Contact No. 8349077878