

VP urges ethical leadership at IIM Ranchi convocation

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE

Ranchi

The Vice President of India, CP Radhakrishnan, on Saturday graced the 15th Annual Convocation of Indian Institute of Management Ranchi, emphasising the need for socially responsible and ethical leadership among future managers.

Addressing the gathering, the Vice President expressed pleasure at visiting the institute after a gap of three years. Recalling his tenure as the Governor of Jharkhand, he said he had closely followed the institute's progress and described its growth as "truly remarkable."

Highlighting the broader role of management education, he stressed that it must extend beyond boardrooms and balance sheets to engage with society and address real-world challenges. "While academic case studies test analytical skills, life demands decisions that affect people's livelihoods, trust, and the larger social good," he noted.

Urging students to uphold values, he said success should not be measured solely by achievements, but also by the ethics and integrity with which it is pursued. "Ethical leadership, integrity, and trust are the foundations of enduring institutions," he said, encouraging graduates to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit. Calling upon the youth to contribute to the vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047, the Vice President advised them to "Think global, act local," ensuring their impact begins at the grassroots level.

VP CP Radhakrishnan along with Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, Union Minister of State for defence Sanjay Seth, Deputy Chairman Raj Sabha Harivansh Narayan Singh distribute certificate and Gold Medals to meritorious students during the 15th Convocation of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) in Ranchi on Saturday PIONEER PHOTO

Congratulating the graduating students, their parents, and faculty members, he wished them success and a purposeful life, reminding them that true success lies not in accumulation, but in giving back to society.

Among those present at the event were Jharkhand Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, Deputy Chairman of the Rajya Sabha Harivansh, Union Minister of State for Defence Sanjay Seth, and Jharkhand Minister Sudivya Kumar, along with other dignitaries. Earlier in the day, the Vice President visited Ulihatu village in Khunti district, the birthplace of tribal freedom fighter Birsa Munda, where he paid tributes. He said he was deeply moved to revisit the place and fondly recalled his first visit there on the day he assumed office as Governor of Jharkhand. He also interacted with the descendants of Birsa Munda.

Later, he offered floral tributes at Bhagwan Birsa Chowk in Ranchi, honoring the legacy of the revered tribal leader.

Radhakrishnan attends IIM-Ranchi's convocation

The Vice-President arrived at the Ranchi airport earlier in the day and was welcomed by Jharkhand Governor Santosh Gangwar, Union minister Sanjay Seth and state minister Sudivya Kumar.

Later in the day, the Vice President attended the 15th convocation of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ranchi, where he presented medals to seven outstanding students.

Officials said the Student Citizenship Award and the Professor Ashish Hajela Award for overall excellence were also presented at the programme, adding that a total of 558 degree certificates were awarded during grand event.

Say no to drugs, VP tells students

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ranchi: Vice-President C P Radhakrishnan on Saturday said management education must go beyond boardrooms and balance sheets and engage with society, address real-world challenges and contribute to inclusive growth.

Speaking at the 15th convocation of IIM-Ranchi, he said, "Hard work, sincerity and devotion may not bring results in the expected way tomorrow, but I am sure that when it comes it would be more than expectation."

As many as 558 students received their degrees in this year's convocation. This includes 26 PhD degrees, 11 PhD (Executive) degrees, and graduates from various programmes from batch 2024-26 - MBA (251), MBA HRM (62), MBA BA (50), MBA (Executive) (50), IPM (BBA+MBA) batch 2021-26 (73 students), and IPM (BBA) batch 2022-25 (35 students).

Radhakrishnan hands over a degree to an IIM-R student during the ceremony on Saturday

The VP urged the students to stay away from drugs and also not allow their friends and relatives consume them adding it could destroy a person's life. Radhakrishnan said Jharkhand brought good luck for him and President Droupadi Murmu as both of them were elevated to the top constitutional posts of the country after serving as governors of the state. He said, "Students should always remember that the true measure of success lies not in what one accumulates, but in what one gives back to society."

The VP also urged the state urban development minister Sudivya Kumar to build an elevated approach road to IIM-R while stating that present road was in improper shape.

VP to attend 15th convocation of IIM-R on Mar 28

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ranchi: Vice president C P Radhakrishnan will visit Ranchi on March 28 to take part in the 15th convocation at the Indian Institute of Management (IIM-R) here. Announcing it, Dean (academics), Tanusree Dutta said that the event will be conducted in two sessions.

The first session will begin at 3 pm and will be graced by the vice president as the chief guest.

Other guests will include Union education minister Dharmendra Pradhan, Jharkhand governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, chief minister Hemant Soren among others. A total of 558 degrees will be awarded during this year's convocation.

The vice president will also launch IIM Ranchi's Virtual Reality Case Repository, the first of its kind among B-schools in India. The district administration, on the other hand, has started preparation for the high profile visit.

VP Urges IIM Ranchi Graduates To Lead With Integrity & Social Responsibility

BW Online Bureau, Mar 30, 2026

CP Radhakrishnan calls for value-based leadership and socially responsive management education at the 15th convocation of the institute

The Vice President of India, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan, on Saturday called upon graduating students to lead with integrity, social responsibility and national commitment, while addressing the 15th annual convocation of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ranchi.

Addressing the gathering, the Vice President emphasised that management education must extend beyond boardrooms and balance sheets and contribute to solving real-world challenges. He said institutions should encourage students to engage with society and support inclusive growth.

Recalling his earlier visit to the institute, Shri Radhakrishnan said it was a pleasure to return after three years and noted the significant progress made by the institute during this period. Drawing from his association with Jharkhand as former Governor, he said he had closely followed the institute's development.

Highlighting the importance of ethical leadership, the Vice President said academic case studies test analytical ability, but real life demands decisions that impact livelihoods, trust and society. He urged students to define success not only by achievements but also by values and ethics.

He further encouraged graduates to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit, noting that integrity and trust are the foundations of enduring institutions.

Calling upon students to contribute to the vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047, he urged them to "think global, act local" and ensure their impact begins at the grassroots level.

Congratulating graduating students, parents and faculty, the Vice President wished them success and encouraged them to remember that the true measure of success lies in what one gives back to society.

Governor of Jharkhand Shri Santosh Kumar Gangwar, Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha Shri Harivansh, Union Minister of State for Defence Shri Sanjay Seth, Minister in the Government of Jharkhand Shri Sudivya Kumar and other dignitaries were present at the event.

During his visit, the Vice President also visited Ulihatu village and interacted with the descendants of Bhagwan Birsa Munda. He later offered floral tributes to Bhagwan Birsa Munda at Bhagwan Birsa Chowk in Ranchi.

<https://www.bweducation.com/article/vp-urges-iim-ranchi-graduates-to-lead-with-integrity-social-responsibility-599911>

VICE PRESIDENT RADHAKRISHNAN URGES IIM RANCHI STUDENTS TO LEAD WITH INTEGRITY, SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

DD NEWS, 29.03.2026

Vice President C. P. Radhakrishnan on Saturday called upon students to embrace ethical leadership, social responsibility, and national commitment while addressing the 15th Annual Convocation of Indian Institute of Management Ranchi in Jharkhand. Speaking at the ceremony, the Vice President emphasized that management education must extend beyond boardrooms and balance sheets to address real-world challenges and contribute to inclusive growth.

“Choose Character Over Shortcuts”

Highlighting the importance of values in leadership, Radhakrishnan urged students to prioritize integrity and purpose in their careers. He said that while academic learning sharpens analytical skills, real-life decisions impact livelihoods, trust, and society at large. He encouraged graduates to measure success not just by achievements, but by the ethics and values guiding their actions. “Choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit,” he advised.

Call to Contribute to Viksit Bharat Vision

The Vice President also urged students to contribute to the vision of a developed India by 2047, stressing the need to “think global and act local,” with a focus on grassroots impact.

Congratulating the graduating students, their families, and faculty members, he said that the true measure of success lies in giving back to society.

Dignitaries Attend Convocation

The event was attended by several dignitaries, including Jharkhand Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh, and Union Minister of State for Defence Sanjay Seth, among others.

Tribute to Birsa Munda

Earlier in the day, the Vice President visited Ulihatu village in Khunti district, the birthplace of tribal freedom fighter Birsa Munda, where he paid floral tributes.

He also interacted with Munda's descendants and later offered homage at Birsa Chowk in Ranchi, recalling his earlier visit to the site during his tenure as Governor of Jharkhand.

<https://ddnews.gov.in/en/vice-president-radhakrishnan-urges-iim-ranchi-students-to-lead-with-integrity-social-responsibility/>

---

15th Annual Convocation, IIM Ranchi. Students felt inspired by VP urging them to lead with Integrity

Jharkhand State News_29.03.2026

Many students of the Indian Institute of Management, Ranchi, have locked yesterday's event in their memory box. This appears to be the result of the content of the lecture delivered by the Vice President of India, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan.

He had graced the 15th Annual Convocation of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ranchi, in Jharkhand on Saturday March 28, 2026.

Addressing the gathering, the Vice President said that it was a pleasure to visit the Institute again after a gap of three years. Recalling his association with Jharkhand as its former Governor, he said that he had been following the Institute's journey with great interest and noted that the progress achieved by IIM Ranchi during this period had been truly remarkable.

Highlighting the importance of socially responsive education, the Vice President said that management education must go beyond boardrooms and balance sheets, and should engage with society, address real-world challenges and contribute to inclusive growth.

The Vice President said that while academic case studies test analytical skills, life demands decisions that affect people's livelihoods, trust and the larger social good. He urged students to define success not merely by achievements, but by the values and ethics with which they pursue them.

The Vice President stated that ethical leadership, integrity and trust are the foundations on which enduring institutions are built. He encouraged students to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit.

Calling upon the youth to contribute to the national vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047, the Vice President urged them to "Think global, act local" and ensure that their impact begins at the grassroots.

Congratulating the graduating students, their parents and the faculty, Shri C.P. Radhakrishnan wished them success, fulfilment and a life of purpose, while urging them to always remember that the true measure of success lies not in what one accumulates, but in what one gives back to society.

Governor of Jharkhand, Shri Santosh Kumar Gangwar; Deputy Chairman of the Rajya Sabha, Shri Harivansh; Union Minister of State for Defence, Shri Sanjay Seth; Minister in the Government of Jharkhand, Shri Sudivya Kumar; and other dignitaries were present on the occasion.

<https://jharkhandstatenews.com/article/top-stories/11154/15th-annual-convocation-iim-ranchi-students-felt-inspired-by-vp-urging-them-to-lead-with-integrity>

---

IIM Ranchi Celebrates 15th Convocation: Vice President Honors Emerging Leaders with Medals and Certificates.

Campusvarta_29.03.2026

Indian Institute of Management Ranchi celebrated its 15th Annual Convocation Ceremony on March 28, 2026, where a total of 558 degrees were awarded across various programmes. The degrees included 26 PhD and 11 PhD (Executive) degrees, along with graduates from MBA (251), MBA HRM (62), MBA BA (50), MBA (Executive) (50), Integrated Programmed in Management (IPM) Batch 2021–26 (73 students), and IPM (BBA) Batch 2022–25 (35 students).

The first session of the ceremony commenced at 3:00 PM and was attended by the Hon'ble Vice President of India, C. P. Radhakrishnan, as the Chief Guest. The event was also graced by Guests of Honour including Santosh Kumar Gangwar, Harivansh Narayan Singh, Sanjay Seth, and Sudivya Kumar. The ceremony began with an academic procession comprising distinguished guests, members of the Board of Governors, the Director, and faculty members.

<https://www.campusvarta.com/article/iim-ranchi-celebrates-15th-convocation-vice-president-honors-emerging-leaders-with-medals-and-certificates>

---

VP Radhakrishnan Attends 15th Convocation of IIM Ranchi

News on Air_28.03.2026

Vice President C. P. Radhakrishnan today attended the 15th convocation ceremony of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ranchi in Jharkhand. He stated that management education should go beyond boardrooms and connect with society, contributing to inclusive development. The Vice President urged students to define success not merely by achievements but by values, ethics, and social responsibility. He emphasized that ethical leadership, integrity, and trust are the foundations of strong institutions, and advised the youth to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit.

<https://www.newsonair.gov.in/vp-radhakrishnan-attends-15th-convocation-of-iim-ranchi/>

---

Choose ethics over shortcuts, VP Radhakrishnan tells IIM Ranchi grads

Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan was addressing fresh graduates at IIM Ranchi at their convocation ceremony

EdexLive 28.03.2026

Ranchi, March 28 (IANS) Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan on Saturday urged graduating students of the Indian Institute of Management Ranchi to priorities ethical values over shortcuts in their professional journeys, emphasizing that true success lies beyond financial gains.

He was addressing the 15th Convocation Ceremony of the IIM Ranchi as the Chief Guest. He called upon students to pursue careers anchored in character, integrity and purpose.

“Success is not measured merely by financial achievements, but also by how responsibly one contributes to society,” he said.

A total of 558 students were awarded degrees at the ceremony, while seven meritorious students received medals and citations.

Toppers from the 2024-26 batch across programmers -- including MBA, MBA-BA, MBA-HRM and Executive MBA (Summer and Winter) -- were felicitated.

Two students were also honored with the Student Citizenship Award and the Prof Ashish Hajela Award.

The Vice President underlined that ethical leadership, trust and integrity are the bedrock of strong and enduring institutions, expressing satisfaction that these values are being nurtured at IIM Ranchi.

Recalling his tenure as Jharkhand Governor, he said he had closely followed the institute’s growth, noting that it has achieved significant milestones in recent years.

On the occasion, he also inaugurated the country's first B-school Virtual Reality Case Repository, developed by the institute, describing it as a major innovation in management education.

Jharkhand Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, who was present at the ceremony, congratulated the students and termed the convocation a defining milestone in their lives.

He said the achievement reflected their hard work, discipline and perseverance, and urged them to contribute to nation-building as responsible and sensitive citizens.

Praising initiatives such as the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Centre for Policy, Leadership and Governance and the Centre for Tribal Affairs, the Governor said these institutions are playing a vital role in advancing inclusive development and good governance.

Several dignitaries, including Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh Narayan, Union Minister of State for Defense Sanjay Seth, and Jharkhand minister Sudivya Kumar, attended the ceremony.

<https://www.edexlive.com/news/choose-ethics-over-shortcuts-vp-radhakrishnan-tells-iim-ranchi-grads>

---

Prioritize Ethics Over Shortcuts: Vice President at IIM Ranchi

The Avenue Mail_28.03.2026

Ranchi (IANS): Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan urged graduating students of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ranchi on Saturday to prioritize ethical values over shortcuts in their professional journeys. Serving as the Chief Guest for the 15th Convocation Ceremony, he emphasized that true success extends far beyond financial gain.

A Call for Integrity and Purpose

In his address, the Vice President called upon students to anchor their careers in character, integrity, and purpose. “Success is not measured merely by financial achievements, but also by how responsibly one contributes to society,” he stated. He described ethical leadership and trust as the bedrock of enduring institutions and expressed satisfaction that IIM Ranchi nurtures these core values.

Recalling his tenure as the Governor of Jharkhand, Radhakrishnan noted that he has closely followed the institute’s growth and significant milestones in recent years.

Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan urged IIM Ranchi graduates to choose ethics over shortcuts during the 15th Convocation

Innovation in Education

During the ceremony, the Vice President inaugurated the country’s first B-school Virtual Reality Case Repository. Developed by IIM Ranchi, he described the project as a major innovation that will transform management education through immersive technology.

Celebrating Academic Success

The ceremony saw 558 students receive their degrees. The institute also felicitated toppers from the 2024-26 batch across various programs, including MBA, MBA-BA, MBA-HRM, and Executive MBA.

- Awards: Seven meritorious students received medals and citations.
- Special Honors: Two students earned the Student Citizenship Award and the Prof. Ashish Hajela Award.

National Perspectives on Leadership

Jharkhand Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar also congratulated the graduates, calling the convocation a defining milestone fueled by hard work and discipline. He urged the class to contribute to nation-building as sensitive, responsible citizens. The Governor specifically praised the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Centre for Policy, Leadership and Governance and the Centre for Tribal Affairs for their roles in advancing inclusive development.

The event drew several high-profile dignitaries, including Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh Narayan, Union Minister of State for Defence Sanjay Seth, and Jharkhand Minister Sudivya Kumar.

<https://avenuemail.in/iim-ranchi-15th-convocation-vice-president-ethics-vr-repository/>

---

Prioritise ethics over shortcuts in professional life: Vice-Prez at IIM Ranchi convocation

NewsGram_28.03.2026

Prioritise ethics over shortcuts in professional life: V-P at IIM Ranchi convocation Ranchi, March 28 (IANS) Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan on Saturday urged graduating students of the Indian Institute of Management Ranchi to prioritise ethical values over shortcuts in their professional journeys, emphasising that true success lies beyond financial gains.

Geographic Reference

He was addressing the 15th Convocation Ceremony of the IIM Ranchi as the Chief Guest. He called upon students to pursue careers anchored in character, integrity and purpose. “Success is not measured merely by financial achievements, but also by how responsibly one contributes to society,” he said.

A total of 558 students were awarded degrees at the ceremony, while seven meritorious students received medals and citations.

Toppers from the 2024-26 batch across programmes -- including MBA, MBA-BA, MBA-HRM and Executive MBA (Summer and Winter) -- were felicitated.

Indian diaspora

Two students were also honoured with the Student Citizenship Award and the Prof Ashish Hajela Award.

The Vice President underlined that ethical leadership, trust and integrity are the bedrock of strong and enduring institutions, expressing satisfaction that these values are being nurtured at IIM Ranchi.

Recalling his tenure as Jharkhand Governor, he said he had closely followed the institute's growth, noting that it has achieved significant milestones in recent years.

On the occasion, he also inaugurated the country's first B-school Virtual Reality Case Repository, developed by the institute, describing it as a major innovation in management

Jharkhand Governor Santosh Kumar Gangwar, who was present at the ceremony, congratulated the students and termed the convocation a defining milestone in their lives. He said the achievement reflected their hard work, discipline and perseverance, and urged them to contribute to nation-building as responsible and sensitive citizens.

Praising initiatives such as the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Centre for Policy, Leadership and Governance and the Centre for Tribal Affairs, the Governor said these institutions are playing a vital role in advancing inclusive development and good governance.

Several dignitaries, including Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh Narayan, Union Minister of State for Defence Sanjay Seth, and Jharkhand minister Sudivya Kumar, attended the ceremony.

newsgram.com/india/2026/03/28/prioritise-ethics-over-shortcuts-in-professional-life-vice-prez-at-iim-ranchi-convocation

Ranchi: Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan attends IIM Ranchi convocation #Gallery
Social News XYZ_28.03.2026

<https://www.socialnews.xyz/2026/03/28/ranchi-vice-president-c-p-radhakrishnan-attends-iim-ranchi-convocation-gallery-2/>

‘Management Must Serve Society’: VP Radhakrishnan Urges Ethical Leadership at IIM Ranchi Convocation

Highlighting the broader role of future leaders, Shri Radhakrishnan said that while academic training sharpens analytical skills, real-life decisions impact livelihoods, trust, and society at large.

Devdiscourse News_28.03.2026

Vice President of India Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan on Saturday called for a redefinition of management education, urging graduates to go beyond profit and pursue ethical, socially responsible leadership aligned with India's vision of a Viksit Bharat by 2047.

Addressing the 15th Annual Convocation of IIM Ranchi, the Vice President emphasised that management education must extend beyond boardrooms and balance sheets to address real-world challenges and contribute to inclusive growth.

'Success Must Be Rooted in Values'

Highlighting the broader role of future leaders, Shri Radhakrishnan said that while academic training sharpens analytical skills, real-life decisions impact livelihoods, trust, and society at large.

"The true measure of success lies not in what one accumulates, but in what one gives back to society," he said, urging students to prioritise values, ethics, and integrity in their professional journeys.

He stressed that ethical leadership and trust are the foundations of enduring institutions and encouraged graduates to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit.

Management Education Beyond Corporate Metrics

The Vice President underlined the need for management graduates to engage with grassroots realities, advocating a "Think global, act local" approach.

He said India's growth story requires leaders who can:

- Address societal challenges
- Promote inclusive development
- Drive responsible innovation
- Contribute to nation-building at the grassroots level

Praise for IIM Ranchi's Growth

Recalling his earlier association with Jharkhand as its former Governor, Shri Radhakrishnan noted the remarkable progress of IIM Ranchi over the past three years.

"It is a pleasure to return and witness the institute's growth and contribution to management education," he said.

Call to Youth for Viksit Bharat

The Vice President urged students to actively contribute to India's transformation into a developed nation by 2047, highlighting the importance of youth leadership in shaping the country's future.

He congratulated graduating students, faculty, and families, wishing them success and a life of purpose.

Dignitaries in Attendance

The convocation was attended by several prominent leaders, including:

- Jharkhand Governor Shri Santosh Kumar Gangwar
- Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha Shri Harivansh
- Union Minister of State for Defence Shri Sanjay Seth
- Jharkhand Minister Shri Sudivya Kumar

Tribute to Bhagwan Birsa Munda

Earlier in the day, the Vice President visited Ulihatu village in Khunti district, the birthplace of tribal freedom fighter Bhagwan Birsa Munda, and paid floral tributes.

Describing the visit as deeply moving, he also interacted with Birsa Munda's descendants and later offered tributes at Bhagwan Birsa Chowk in Ranchi, reaffirming the importance of remembering India's tribal heritage and freedom struggle.

A Message of Purpose and Responsibility

The Vice President's address reinforced the idea that leadership in modern India must combine professional excellence with social responsibility, as the country moves towards its long-term development goals.

<https://www.devdiscourse.com/article/law-order/3854282-management-must-serve-society-vp-radhakrishnan-urges-ethical-leadership-at-iim-ranchi-convocation?amp>

Vice President Addresses 15th Annual Convocation Of IIM Ranchi; Urges Students To Lead With Integrity, Social Responsibility And National Commitment.

Tripura Star News_28.03.2026

The Vice President of India, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan, graced the 15th Annual Convocation of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ranchi, in Jharkhand today.

Addressing the gathering, the Vice President said that it was a pleasure to visit the Institute again after a gap of three years. Recalling his association with Jharkhand as its former Governor, he said that he had been following the Institute's journey with great interest and noted that the progress achieved by IIM Ranchi during this period had been truly remarkable.

Highlighting the importance of socially responsive education, the Vice President said that management education must go beyond boardrooms and balance sheets, and should engage with society, address real-world challenges and contribute to inclusive growth.

The Vice President said that while academic case studies test analytical skills, life demands decisions that affect people's livelihoods, trust and the larger social good. He urged students to define success not merely by achievements, but by the values and ethics with which they pursue them.

The Vice President stated that ethical leadership, integrity and trust are the foundations on which enduring institutions are built. He encouraged students to choose character over shortcuts and purpose over profit.

Calling upon the youth to contribute to the national vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047, the Vice President urged them to “Think global, act local” and ensure that their impact begins at the grassroots.

Congratulating the graduating students, their parents and the faculty, Shri C.P. Radhakrishnan wished them success, fulfilment and a life of purpose, while urging them to always remember that the true measure of success lies not in what one accumulates, but in what one gives back to society.

Governor of Jharkhand, Shri Santosh Kumar Gangwar; Deputy Chairman of the Rajya Sabha, Shri Harivansh; Union Minister of State for Defence, Shri Sanjay Seth; Minister in the Government of Jharkhand, Shri Sudivya Kumar; and other dignitaries were present on the occasion.

Earlier in the day, the Vice President visited the birthplace of Bhagwan Birsa Munda at Ulihatu village in Khunti District and paid tributes to the heart freedom fighter, on his maiden visit to the state after assuming the office of Vice President of India.

He said he was deeply moved to once again visit Ulihatu and fondly recalled his visit to the place on the very first day when he took the oath as the Governor of Jharkhand. He also interacted with the descendants of Bhagwan Birsa Munda at Ulihatu village.

The Vice President also offered floral tributes to Bhagwan Birsa Munda at Bhagwan Birsa Chowk in Ranchi.

<https://www.tripurastarnews.com/vice-president-addresses-15th-annual-convocation-of-iim-ranchi-urges-students-to-lead-with-integrity-social-responsibility-and-national-commitment/>

---

Vice President C.P. Radhakrishnan attends IIM Ranchi convocation #Gallery Social News XYZ 28.03.2026

<https://www.socialnews.xyz/2026/03/28/ranchi-vice-president-c-p-radhakrishnan-attends-iim-ranchi-convocation-gallery/>

---

Vice- President visits Birsa Munda’s birthplace; attends IIM-Ranchi convocation

Hindustan Times_28.03.2026

Radha krishnan was the Governor of Jharkhand between 2023 and 2024. Recalling the Centre’s decision Radha Krishnan said the visionary decision taken in 2021 by Prime Minister Narendra Modi to commemorate November 15, Bhagwan Birsa Munda's birth anniversary, as Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas has elevated national awareness and pride in our tribal heritage.

Vice-President C P Radha Krishnan on Saturday visited Ulihatu, birthplace of Birsa Munda in Khunti district, and paid floral tributes to the tribal icon's statue, underlining that Bhagwan Birsa Munda's life and sacrifice continue to inspire generations.

During the visit Radha Krishnan interacted with the descendants of Birsa Munda at Ulihatu

“After assuming the office of the Vice-President of India, I am deeply moved to once again visit Ulihatu, the sacred birthplace of Bhagwan Birsa Munda.

Radha Krishnan was the Governor of Jharkhand between 2023 and 2024. Recalling the Centre's decision, Radha Krishnan said the visionary decision taken in 2021 by Prime Minister Narendra Modi to commemorate November 15, Bhagwan Birsa Munda's birth anniversary, as Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas has elevated national awareness and pride in our tribal heritage. “I also had the privilege of being present with the Prime Minister at Khunti when he announced the PM-JANMAN scheme at a formative in itative aimed at protecting and empowering particularly vulnerable tribal communities,” he added.

Radha Krishnan further said that the two-pronged approach—instilling pride and awareness about the rich legacy and struggles of tribal freedom fighters across generations while simultaneously empowering tribal communities during this Amrit Kaal —truly embodies the realisation of the rights and dignity for which Bhagwan Birsa Munda fought so valiantly.

Radha Krishnan attends IIM-Ranchi's convocation

The Vice-President arrived at the Ranchi airport earlier in the day and was welcomed by Jharkhand Governor Santosh Gangwar, Union minister Sanjay Seth and state minister Sudivya Kumar.

Officials said the Student Citizenship Award and the Professor Ashish Hajela Award for overall excellence were also presented at the programmed, adding that a total of 558 degree certificates were awarded during the event.

<https://www.hindustantimes.com/cities/ranchi-news/vicepresident-visits-birsa-munda-s-birthplace-attends-iim-ranchi-convocation-101774705679644.html>

-----